

CURRICULUM VITAE

Athanasia Theodoridou

Athanasia Theodoridou graduated from the Department of Chemical Engineering, National Technical University of Athens (NTUA), and is a holder of an Executive MBA from the Athens University of Economics and Business. She is also a graduate of the Hellenic Open University BA Course "Studies in European Civilization".

Since June 2015 she has been Director of International Relations of the Greek Manpower Employment Organization - OAED (the Greek Public Employment Service).

For 3,5 years (2012-2015) she was General Director of Vocational Education and Training of OAED.

She is the Project Manager of two Erasmus+ Methodology Projects on the Dual Apprenticeship / Vocational Education System, in which OAED is the leader partner.

Since 2010, she has represented OAED in the European Network of Public Employment Services (PES) as Assistant to the Head of PES and as an Alternate Member of the Board of the Network. Moreover, as an expert (mainly on topics concerning Apprenticeship and ALMPs) representing OAED and/or the Greek Ministry of Labour, she has participated in numerous European and International conferences.

For many years, she has been actively involved in designing, managing and monitoring the implementation of Programmes co-funded by the European Structural Funds (ESF and ERDF), in Special Management Services of the Ministry of Economy and Ministry of Education (1998-2007).

She has an extensive background in all levels of Education and Training (Secondary and Tertiary Education, Vocational Training for Adults and People with Disabilities), as well as Distance Learning. She is also a holder of Pedagogical Studies certificate (PATES/SELETE).

Since 2012, she has also been actively involved, as Deputy Project Manager and Member of the Steering Committee, in the "Reengineering of OAED's Business Model" Programme.

She loves traveling and has visited more than 55 countries all over the world. She also loves literature, theater and cinema. She is currently attending the Hellenic Open University Postgraduate Course "Creative Writing".